

SEP 23 1956

Front
PageEdit
PageOther
Page

Date:

Ike Names Six As Reviewers Of Foreign Aid

FOIAb3b

WASHINGTON, Sept. 22 (AP).—

President Eisenhower made six appointments today to complete the group of citizen advisers which will review all foreign aid programs and recommend future policies.

He previously had named Benjamin Fairless, former chairman of the board of the U.S. Steel Corp., as coordinator of the private study.

The six members named today, who will hold their first meeting and confer with the President at the White House Sept. 27, are:

Jesse W. Tapp, vice chairman of the board of directors, Bank of America, Los Angeles.

Colgate W. Darden Jr., president, University of Virginia.

John L. Lewis, president, United Mineworkers.

Gen. Walter Bedell Smith, former director of the Central Intelligence Agency, and now vice chairman, American and Foundry Co., Washington, D.C.

Whitelaw Reid, chairman of the board, New York Herald Tribune.

Richard A. Deupree, chairman of the board, Proctor & Gamble Co., Cincinnati.

The group will make a progress report Dec 1 and a final report next year.

CPYRGHT